

Harriman Against Seat For Peking

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 31

(UPI) — Entrance of Communist China into the United Nations would do nothing to further the cause of world peace, U.S. Ambassador at Large Averell Harriman said today.

On the contrary, Harriman said admission of the Red Chinese would serve only to "disrupt" the United Nations.

He cited a recent statement by Communist Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi that Peking would be willing to join the U.N. only if it branded the United States instead of Red China and North Korea as "aggressors" in the Korean war and only if the world organization were reorganized to exclude "all imperialist puppets," which presumably means Nationalist China.

Harriman's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery at the University of Arizona.

U.S. officials do not believe enough votes could be mustered to admit Communist China to the U.N. this year.

Harriman said it is "naive" to think Communist Chinese aggressiveness can be moderated "merely by talking with them." He said "the British have been talking with them since 1949 and have not yet even been able to get them to agree on an exchange of ambassadors."

The United States has had 127 talks with the Communist Chinese at Warsaw. But Harriman said "the only thing they ever want to talk about is our handing Taiwan over to them."
